

RBC Wealth Management®

At RBC Wealth Management, we believe the strength of our business is directly tied to the well-being of the communities where we live and work. Since 1909, RBC Wealth Management has strived to offer exceptional financial consulting services, while building strong partnerships with our clients and communities.

In our wealth management business, we are privileged to have clients who entrust us to serve as stewards of their assets. We are proud to say that throughout one of the most turbulent periods the financial services industry has ever experienced, our commitment to effective stewardship of our clients' assets has never been more evident.

On a broader level, we recognize that our stewardship values also extend to our communities. Each year, RBC Wealth Management contributes more than $3 million to the communities where we do business. Why? Because we believe that corporate leadership and involvement are essential to the health and vitality of our communities.

As a part of our stewardship values, we have a strong commitment to supporting the arts—it's actually one of our focus areas for community involvement. It is a commitment shared by our parent company, Royal Bank of Canada.

We believe that the arts are an essential part of a vital, well-rounded community. Art has an ability to communicate a message that transcends language and culture. It connects us and enriches us—as individuals, and as communities.

In the Twin Cities area, RBC Wealth Management has a long-standing relationship with the Walker Art Center in Minneapolis. Our CEO, John Taft, is a longtime supporter of the arts, and currently serves on the board of trustees at the Walker. John is a strong believer in community leadership and actively supports RBC Wealth Management's community involvement programs.

By supporting the Walker Art Center, RBC Wealth Management is working to fulfill our corporate responsibility of encouraging reflection and debate in the community. We are proud to partner with the Walker as the sponsor of Yves Klein: With the Void, Full Powers.